50.	Will eligible jobseekers be covered by insurance under the Career Trial?
	Yes, eligible jobseekers undergoing the Career Trial will be covered by insurance paid for by WSG/NTUC's e2i except for the following occupations (refer to Exclusion List of Occupations in Annex A).
51.	Does the insurance provided by WSG/NTUC's e2i covers all kinds of occupations?
	No. Refer to Exclusion List of Occupations in Annex A for the list of occupations which are excluded from the insurance under Career Trial. For these excluded occupations, the employer must provide insurance coverage for the jobseekers during the period of Career Trial as WSG/NTUC's e2i does not provide the insurance coverage.
G	Others
52.	Is Career Trial applicable for all hiring positions?
	Career Trial is applicable where there is a need for a trial period for the employer and jobseeker to assess job fit, considering factors such as the occupation, industry and jobseeker profile.
53.	Can employers vary the Career Trial duration for the job position?
	Yes, employers have the flexibility to customise the Career Trial duration between 16 hours and 480 hours i.e. up to 3 months according to the needs of the job trial, subject to WSG/NTUC's e2i approval.
54.	How many Career Trial positions can employers offer under the Career Trial?
	Companies registered under the Career Trial can offer up to 5 Career Trial vacancies per job position subject to WSG/NTUC's e2i approval.
55.	How do employers update Career Trial vacancies after approved vacancies are utilised?
	Companies are to return to the original approving authority, WSG / NTUC's e2i, to close vacancies upon full utilisation of approved number of vacancies.
56.	Is there an expiry date for approved Career Trial positions?

	Yes. The approved Career Trial position will expire six months from the approval date and removed from WSG's Career Trial Listing. Employers who wish to reactivate their expired Career Trial position will need to post their vacancy on JobsBank and inform WSG/NTUC e2i of the new JobsBank ID before they can shortlist new jobseekers on Career Trial.
57.	If employers have more than one Career Trial position, can employers submit multiple Career Trial Activities to WSG/NTUC's e2i concurrently?
	Yes, employers can submit multiple Career Trial Activities customised for each position to WSG/NTUC's e2i for approval.
58.	Do employers need to offer employment to jobseekers after the Career Trial?
	Employers should offer employment (on permanent terms or on contract terms that are no less than one (1) year) to suitable jobseekers (with monthly fixed salary and CPF contributions) and to inform the jobseeker(s) if employment is not offered. Employers are required to inform the jobseeker whether he/she is to be offered employment, within five working days after completion of the Career Trial.
59.	Can probation period be considered under Career Trial?
	No. Career Trial is to allow employers who are unsure about the jobseekers' job fit to assess them before offering employment. There should be no employer-employee relationship (i.e. with a formal employment contract/letter) prior to and during the Career Trial.
60.	If employers do not qualify for the Career Trial, are there any similar programmes?
	There are currently other existing schemes such as WSG and NTUC's e2i's Place and Train (PnT) programmes that help employers recruit locals. Under the PnT programmes, including Professional Conversion Programmes, are geared to help jobseekers to re-skill themselves through a structured training. Employers will interview and hire the potential jobseekers before commencing the training. Employers can contact WSG/NTUC's e2i for more information on the PnT programmes. WSG's Careers Connect Hotline: 6883 5885 Feedback Portal: https://portal.ssg-wsg.gov.sg
